

Gentlemen of the BTC

September 11, 2025

It was another beautiful day for golf at Deer Creek. We have been pretty lucky with the weather on Tuesdays for the most part. My quest to shoot in the 70's came as close as you can get. I shot 80. Two 3-putts kept me from breaking 80. I played with G. Foster 78, and B. Kennedy 79. We had the 3 low scores of the day. There were two other 80's by Jimmy "I can't stop talking" McDermott and Mr. Hot Rod Tom Wilson. Even though Foster and Mr. President beat me, I took home the "Big Money" without getting any strokes.

There were some other good scores out there. F. Kossman 81, J. Day 82, Boyle 83, Stanford 83, and my idol Gar Ward 83. Handicap scores were led by G. Ward 83/61, M. Janda 86/66, J. Van Eck 90/67, L. Swintek 89/68, L. Vardikos 85/68, K. Poteracki 93/69, B. Tutka 95/70, K. Flanagan 100/71, J. Bondi 90/72, and Suntken 87/72.

There were four Ageless Wonder Club members out there. Don Franco 89/71, Marv Huddleston 120/84, Jim Musser 96/76, and 89 year old Gar Ward 83/61.

Sorry, not much else to say. Next week, the 16th is Italian Day at Glenwoodie. I will not be able to attend but a good time should be had by all.

Your secretary,
DJ

P.S. I hate par 5's.

Sick and Vigil

Andy Zilis suffered a major setback in his quest for a heart transplant. Andy is out of the hospital and at home recovering from the emergency surgery he had two weekends ago. The recovery process could be 6 months or more. Once he recovers from this surgery, he will then have to start the whole heart transplant process all over again.
